Release of Records Form: Requesting Records

At SCCH, we cannot share your medical records with anyone unless you say it is okay with you. Sometimes, another agency may need to give us your records so we can give you the care you need. If you sign this form, it means that it is okay with you for another agency to share your records with SCCH.

By signing this form, I understand that:

1. This form is good for one year, unless you tell us it should end on this date: _____
2. I can change my mind any time. I just need to give SCCH a written statement that says I no longer give my okay to share your records.
3. We cannot take back records that have already been shared.
4. If you can legally sign for the patient, you must give us papers that show that.
5. My records may not be protected by HIPAA if I or another agency shares my records. California law prevents anyone who gets my records from sharing them without my written okay.
6. My health care benefits can't be affected by whether or not I sign this form.
