Business Digest, Oct. 1, 2014: Cruzin' Courses set for Oct. 16

Organizer Cathy Schlumbrecht invites women to participate in the ninth Annual Cruzin' Courses, a progressive dinner in downtown Santa Cruz Oct. 16. The event typically sells out.

The schedule starts at 4 p.m. at Hotel Paradox with duckbreast, figs and Crescenza cheese and Chalone cabernet sauvignon and Estancia pinot grigio; Soif, 5:30 p.m. for root vegetable soup and Blue Heron red lettuce with scallions, radishes, and cucumber and Tyrrell's Hunter Valley semillon 2007; Annieglass, 6:25-7:35 p.m., for shopping; Red Restaurant, 7:45 p.m., pan-fried Petrale sole with sauteed Blue Lake beans, potato puree, or herb-roasted chicken with mushrooms and cheese grits or Tuscan orecchiette with brussell sprouts, gigante beans, roasted pearl onions and pecorino cheese, with red or white wine, Hotel Paradox, 9 p.m. pomegranata panna cotta, Secco Moscato dessert wine and coffee.

Tickets are $125 plus city tax at eventbrite.com. Proceeds go to the Santa Cruz Chamber of Commerce Women-In-Business Scholarship Program and the Santa Cruz Women's Health Center.

The committee is looking for donations of raffle items by Oct. 8.

Hotel Paradox is offering Cruzin' Courses attendees a special rate of $165 for that evening.
